Exceptional Children

Term: Fall 2021

Number of Credits: 3

Course Outline

INSTRUCTOR: Jennifer Bugg

E-MAIL: jennifer.bugg@yukonu.ca

OFFICE HOURS: by appointment

CLASSROOM: Hybrid on-campus (Room A2103) and online via Zoom

TIME: Tuesdays 6:30 p.m. -9:20 p.m.

DATES: September 8 – December 7, 2021

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Students consider the exceptional child, first with respect to the child's needs as an individual, and, second, as the exceptionality influences his/her development and behaviour. Exceptionality is considered within the context of the family. Attention is focused on the most inclusive environment in which the child's personal and educational needs can be met. This course is an introduction to exceptionality and is not intended to train specialists in the field.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Prerequisite(s): Completion of first year of ELCC Program or permission of the instructor.

EQUIVALENCY OR TRANSFERABILITY

Receiving institutions determine course transferability. Find further information at:

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Demonstrate an awareness of personal and Northern societal towards and issues concerning exceptional children
- Describe the possible developmental, behavioural, and health-related challenges experienced by children with exceptionalities
- Recognize the need for early identification and intervention
- Know what constitutes the most inclusive environment for the care and education of children with exceptionalities
- Demonstrate practical knowledge of a child with an exceptionality, learned through observation and interaction, focusing on the child's strengths and challenges
- Describe the impact of exceptionality within the family.

COURSE FORMAT

Weekly breakdown of instructional hours

It is expected that this course will require 3 hours per week of face to face class time and approximately 9 hours a week of individual homework, additional reading and asynchronous learning. It is important to note that the time required will vary by individual.

Delivery format

This 45-hour course will be delivered through a blend of synchronous web-conferencing via Zoom and on-campus learning and asynchronous learning via Moodle. The presentation of information will be delivered primarily by the instructor and occasionally by a guest speaker. Each lesson will include a variety of teaching/learning experiences. The strategies may include lecture, large and small discussion groups, in-class projects, simulations, role plays, observations, readings, audio-visual aids, guest speakers, and student's individual assignments.

EVALUATION

Student performance will be evaluated through participation in class learning opportunities, reading responses, assignments and class discussions.

Each assignment is designed to help the student synthesize knowledge from class, readings, personal knowledge, and traditional knowledge to build greater understanding. Planned class discussions are enriched when students have completed assigned work at the appropriate time.

All assignments are expected to be submitted punctually. Five percent will be deducted for each calendar day that an assignment is late. Please see additional comments about assignments in the assignment package.
