COURSE DESCRIPTION

English 030 is a ninety-hour course that introduces students to academic writing, reading, and communication skills. The writing component of this course includes an introduction to the writing process, and the development of a variety of paragraphs. Students will also develop grammar, spelling, and vocabulary skills through consistent use of a dictionary and thesaurus. In the reading component of the course, students will develop and practice a variety of reading strategies through the study of a novel and other sources. Other skills students will develop in preparation for further academic study include critical thinking, presentation skills, and introductory computer skills.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Prerequisite(s):

Successful completion of English 020: English Fundamentals, or acceptable scores on the Yukon College English placement assessments.

EQUIVALENCY OR TRANSFERABILITY

Yukon University's English 030: Communication through Reading and Writing is designed on the model of the BCCAT ABE Handbook for Intermediate English. English 030 is roughly equivalent to grade 10 in BC's Ministry of Education K-12 system.

Please refer to the B.C. Transfer Guide (available as a link on the online course page) for the most up-to-date information on course transferability. If you have questions about course transferability, contact the School of Academic and Skill Development.
