LEARNING OUTCOMES

The objective of this course is to promote critical thinking about the Canadian legal system based on knowledge of theoretical concepts and actual functioning of law, police, counsel, the courts and corrections.

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Describe the hierarchy and structure of the Canadian and Yukon Courts;
- Explain the importance of our constitution, the Rule of Law, and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms;
- Identify the federal and provincial areas of legislative jurisdiction;
- Articulate and apply basic principles of law in the subject areas of torts and contracts;
- Recognize restrictions on non-lawyers and the various ethical duties imposed on members of the legal profession as defined in the Rules of Professional Conduct and the Legal Profession Act;
- Identify the role of judges, their ethical duties, and the importance of the independence of the judiciary.

COURSE FORMAT

Course will be a total of 45 class hours plus a final exam. Lectures are conducted in a seminar/class participation format.

ASSESSMENTS

1. Essay / Presentation: CHOICE: Each student is required to do either:
 - a. Essay: an 8 - 10 page, typed essay in APA format, which will be worth 20% of your final grade. Based on the lectures, readings, and research from a minimum of 10 sources, of which there must be at least 5 peer-reviewed journal articles, draft a written essay that addresses one of the topics provided in class. Available topics and more details will be provided in class; or
 - b. Presentation: an oral assignment which will be worth 20% of your final grade. Each student must prepare a 15-20 minute presentation to the class. Students will be graded on their presentation style and substance. Available topics and more details will be provided in class.
2. Essay: Students are also required to submit an 8 - 10 page, typed essay in APA format, which will be worth 20% of your final grade. Based on the lectures, readings, and research from a minimum of 10 sources, of which there must be at least 5 peer-reviewed journal articles, draft a written essay that addresses one of the topics provided in class. Available topics and more details will be provided in class

NOTE: Each student will do either two essays (#1(a) and #2) or one Presentation (#1(b)) and one essay (#2)

Written assignments for this course must be word processed and meet the basic requirements for FORMAL ACADEMIC PAPERS (i.e. APA format, 12 point font, 1 inch margins etc.). Proper referencing (APA) is required. Note also that despite APA guidelines, we require that all quotations and paraphrases include the page number of the source when referenced.

3. Mid-term Examination: which will be worth 20% of your final grade.
4. Final Examination: which will be worth 30% of your final grade.
5. Attendance and Participation: Students will be expected to have read and be prepared to discuss the assigned readings for each class. Students will also be expected to read and study materials handed out in class. Students are expected to participate fully in any group exercises that may be assigned during class time. Class attendance and participation will be worth 10% of your final grade.

Mere presence in the classroom is not sufficient. Students will be assessed for active listening skills, demonstrated knowledge of the required readings, and proven understanding of the issues. Students are encouraged to express their own views, to criticize the instructors' analysis, and to raise questions from current events that relate to course content. The Instructor will call upon individual students to answer questions about the materials each week. Students are strongly encouraged to keep up with the assigned readings and to be prepared for each class.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS / MATERIALS:

Canadian Law: An Introduction, 6th Edition (2015): Neil Boyd:

Additional, Required Course Readings will be provided in class or by email

COURSE REQUIREMENTS / EVALUATION

Student performance will be evaluated by grading in each of the following areas:

Attendance and Participation	10%
Oral Presentation	20%
Written Essay	20%
Midterm Examination	20%
Final Examination	30%
Total	100%

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT REQUIREMENTS

Written assignments for this course must be word-processed and fulfil the basic requirements for formal academic papers. You also should note that LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE PENALIZED BY ONE MARK PER DAY unless an extension is legitimately warranted and approved by the course instructor in advance of the assignment due date. Assignments submitted late without instructor approval will not be graded.

LAPTOPS/CELL PHONES IN THE CLASSROOM

Students are not encouraged to bring laptops to class. A closed laptop rule during lecture will be enforced. Other communication devices such as cell phones will need to be on 'silent' during the class. This policy is based on current research that shows that the use of mobile devices in the classroom is a distraction to other students and can result in lower final grades to the user.

LORENE ROBERTSON WRITING CENTRE

All students are encouraged to make the Writing Centre a regular part of the writing process for coursework. The Lorene Robertson Writing Centre is staffed by helpful writing coaches from across the College and offers one-on-one appointments to students in need of writing support.

The Lorene Robertson Writing Centre can help you:

- Get started on an assignment and focus your ideas
- Outline and plan your assignment
- Write clearly, logically and effectively
- Address specific needs and writing problems
- Revise the first and final drafts of your project
- Gain confidence in your writing

For in-person appointments, the Centre coaching office is located in the Academic Support Centre in room A2302. You can also participate in a coaching appointments over the phone or online. see the Academic Support Centre schedule for English and writing support times.

ACADEMIC AND STUDENT CONDUCT

Information on academic standing and student rights and responsibilities can be found in the current Academic Regulations that are posted on the Student Services/ Admissions & Registration web page.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Plagiarism occurs when students present the words of someone else as their own. Plagiarism can be the deliberate use of a whole piece of another person's writing, but more frequently it occurs when students fail to acknowledge and document sources from which they have taken material. Whenever the words, research or ideas of others are directly quoted or paraphrased, they must be documented according to an accepted manuscript style (e.g., APA, CSE, MLA, etc.). Resubmitting a paper which has previously received credit is also considered plagiarism. Students who plagiarize material for assignments will receive a mark of zero (F) on the assignment and may fail the course. Plagiarism may also result in dismissal from a program of study or the College.

Do not jeopardize your academic future with plagiarism. It is dishonest and can have serious consequences.

YUKON FIRST NATIONS CORE COMPETENCY

Yukon College recognizes that a greater understanding and awareness of Yukon First Nations history, culture and journey towards self-determination will help to build positive relationships among all Yukon citizens. As a result, to graduate from ANY Yukon College program, you will be required to achieve core competency in knowledge of Yukon First Nations. For details, please see www.yukoncollege.yk.ca/yfnccr.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

Reasonable accommodations are available for students requiring an academic accommodation to fully participate in this class. These accommodations are available for students with a documented disability, chronic condition or any other grounds specified in section 8.0 of the Yukon College Academic Regulations (available on the Yukon College website). It is the student's responsibility to seek these accommodations. If a student requires an academic accommodation, he/she should contact the Learning Assistance Centre (LAC) at (867) 668-8785 or lassist@yukoncollege.yk.ca.
