COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will introduce participants to various winter outdoor pursuits, including hiking, cross country & downhill skiing, snowboarding, fat biking, winter survival, and winter camping. Instruction will focus on the principles of outdoor leadership, team building, decision making and risk management in a northern environment. Students will develop knowledge & skills for leading group activities in the northern outdoors.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Prerequisite(s): None

RELATED COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Physical Requirements

This course is an introduction to outdoor pursuits in the north and students are not required to have previous experience or skills in the course activities.

Due to the nature of the course activities however, students will experience physical challenges that can include, but are not limited to, moving up steep terrain, being out in the cold, and in changing weather conditions for multiple days. Embracing these challenges with a positive spirit is critical to having a successful experience on this course.

EQUIVALENCY OR TRANSFERABILITY

Receiving institutions determine course transferability. Find further information at:
<https://www.yukonu.ca/admissions/transfer-credit>

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will develop skills, and an understanding in/of:

- physical activities available in Northern winter outdoors including, cross country skiing, downhill skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, fat-biking, hiking and winter camping

- leadership roles, planning and responsibilities in outdoor settings
- personal leadership style and development
- psychology of team building, group dynamics and risk management
- winter survival and travel skills
- equipment and clothing requirements for winter activities
- environmental ethics & leave no trace in outdoor activities

COURSE FORMAT

Weekly breakdown of instructional hours

Class is Fridays from 9:00 – 4:00. There is a mandatory weekend camping trip during the semester. The schedule is subject to change due to weather conditions and availability of resources. Students should come to every class prepared to be outdoors, regardless of the weather or temperature. In addition to the Friday class, there will be several assignments to be completed outside of class time and students should set aside 3 hours each week for this work.

Lastly, students should plan for an overnight trip (i.e. Friday to Sunday) at a midpoint in the schedule class.

Delivery format

This course will be delivered in a face-to-face format and participation is mandatory. Due to the condensed format and the learning outcomes of the course (e.g. outside and physical), it is imperative that students are fully engaged with the material and participate to the best of their ability.

EVALUATION

Outdoor Leadership Assignment	25%
Skill Facilitation and Presentation	25%
Mid-Point Reflection	20%
Final Reflection	30%
Total	100%

Outdoor Leadership Assignment (25%)

Two students will be responsible for each day (student led days in topic outline) Students will be responsible for:

1. Facilitating the vision and conversation for the day
2. Team building activity and group dynamics/cohesion
3. Identifying the risks of the activity and the days events (work with instructor to manage those risks)
 - a. This will involve some research!
4. Facilitating discussions on any equipment/clothing requirements for activity (pre, during, and post)
5. Discussing environmental ethics & leave no trace concerns for the day (pre, during, and post)
6. Coordinating and supporting the activities of the day, including leading the group towards accomplishing an identified objective, group check-ins, group breaks, lunch.
7. Coordinating and supporting the skill facilitation and presentation assigned for that day.

8. Students that are not leading or facilitating that day should be active leaders

Groups will be encouraged to formulate plans early into the course and seek continuous feedback on these plans from their fellow students and instructor before, during and after leading their assigned activities. Time for such feedback sessions will be provided for during every class. The instructor will be available to guide students and help them coordinate their visions and plans for their respective days.

After the completion of the outdoor program management assignment, teams will be asked to complete a trip report. The trip report should include a summary of the day's events, suggestions for improvement, safety management information, and all logistical details with an aim to assisting and improving the experience for the following year's course cohort. A rubric and examples will be provided.

Skill Facilitation and Presentation (25% - instructor assessed)

Two students will be responsible for the skill facilitation or presentation on each PHED 225 day. Each group will select a topic from the PHED 225 topics and plan a skill building session to help other students understand and practice the outdoor skill. This session will occur at some point during the activity of the day and groups will need to coordinate with the student leaders of the day. These sessions will take 30-45mins each day and please ask the instructor for help and support.

Mid-point and Final Reflection (50%)

Students will complete a self-assessment at the midpoint and a final self reflection. Weekly journals should be completed on Moodle on Sunday at midnight after each PHED class. There will be guiding questions to help you complete your self-assessment. This will act as a journal and Critical Incident Questionnaire. There will also be a mid term and final guided self-assessment near the completion of the course. The Critical Incident Questionnaires will be used to provide peers with feedback on their outdoor leadership and skill facilitation assignments.

9. Instructor will mark as complete and provide feedback on a weekly basis
10. You and the instructor will use this weekly reflection to complete the mid term (30% of final grade) reflection and the final reflection (40% of final grade)
