COURSE CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Examines how social psychologists use experimental and correlational research methods to gain insight into social behaviour and how social psychological theories can be used to understand behaviour and judgments in everyday life.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Social Psychology is the scientific study of how individuals think, behave, and are influenced by others. Current theories in the field will be applied to real-life situations to make sense of human behaviour. Topics covered include behaviour and attitudes, social beliefs, cultural influences, conformity and obedience, self-knowledge and self-esteem, persuasion, group influence, aggression, altruism, prejudice and discrimination, stress and health, legal testimonies and law, and interpersonal relationships. In-class experiments, group discussions and hands-on activities are important learning tools used in this course.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course students will have developed knowledge and understanding of:

- Social thinking
- Social influence
- Social relations
- Basic research skills

COURSE FORMAT

The course will consist of lectures, class discussions, debates, demonstrations, and supplementary audio-visual materials.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Students are expected to attend regularly, complete all assignments, and to participate actively in class discussions. Since a large portion of the examinable material will be based on classroom information, attendance is critical. If you miss a class, please arrange with another student to take notes and to inform you of in-class experiences. Students are responsible for obtaining handouts and completing assignments for any classes missed. Class discussion is an important element in this course. Students will be responsible for the readings assigned and should be prepared to discuss these readings and share their insights in class.

All written assignment must be handed in by 4:00 pm on the due date. There is a penalty for late assignments of 10% per day, including weekends. Only in extreme, unforeseen circumstances will a late assignment be accepted without penalty.

ASSESSMENTS

Attendance/Participation 10%

Regular attendance and participation in class is expected. Missed classes will result in a reduction of the attendance mark.

Midterm Exam Due: February 27th 25%

The mid-term is scheduled for February 27th and will be a multiple choice exam.

Critical Response Journal/Portfolio Due March 27th 35%

The goal of the critical response journal/portfolio is to help you evaluate and apply the material in each chapter and recognize instances in everyday life where social psychology is applicable. You will require a binder or notebook specifically for this chapter by chapter assignment. It is suggested that you write a critical response after the completion of every chapter. Portfolio material can be added to your binders from such things as clippings from newspapers or magazines that illustrate concepts from social psychology. Examples might include material that has been derived from articles, editorials, advice columns, photographs, or cartoons. You will need to write a summary of each clipping and indicate how it relates to social psychology. There is no limit to how much you write but please keep your material to areas that are relevant to the course and use proper grammatical form. Your writing should demonstrate that you have put thought into how the chapter relates to your experiences and how portfolio clippings relate to concepts of social psychology. Your critical response journal/portfolio will be due no later than March 27th at the beginning of the class, without incurring a 10% per day penalty, including weekends.

Final Exam Due: Exam Week 30%

The final exam will be comprehensive and take place during the regularly scheduled exam period (April 10 - 21). It will be 3 hours in duration and will contain multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. Students must achieve a passing grade of 50% on the final examination in order to pass the course. A failed final exam will result in a failed course.

Alternate arrangements will not be made for students unable to write the final examination at the scheduled time/date unless exceptional circumstances prevail and the instructor has given approval in advance.

All evaluative components for this course are compulsory, and must be completed in order to pass the course.

EVALUATION

ACADEMIC AND STUDENT CONDUCT

Information on academic standing and student rights and responsibilities can be found in the Academic Regulations:
http://www.yukoncollege.yk.ca//downloads/Yukon_College_Academic_Regulations_and_Procedures_-_August_2013_final_v1.pdf

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is a serious academic offence. Plagiarism occurs when students present the words of someone else as their own. Plagiarism can be the deliberate use of a whole piece of another person's writing, but more frequently it occurs when students fail to acknowledge and document sources from which they have taken material. Whenever the words, research or ideas of others are directly quoted or paraphrased, they must be documented according to an accepted manuscript style (e.g., APA, CSE, MLA, etc.). Resubmitting a paper which has previously received credit is also considered plagiarism. Students who plagiarize material for assignments will receive a mark of zero (F) on the assignment and may fail the course. Plagiarism may also result in dismissal from a program of study or the College.

YUKON FIRST NATIONS CORE COMPETENCY

Yukon College recognizes that a greater understanding and awareness of Yukon First Nations history, culture and journey towards self-determination will help to build positive relationships among all Yukon citizens. As a result, to graduate from ANY Yukon College program, you will be required to achieve core competency in knowledge of Yukon First Nations. For details, please see www.yukoncollege.yk.ca/yfnccr.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

Reasonable accommodations are available for students requiring an academic accommodation to fully participate in this class. These accommodations are available for students with a documented disability, chronic condition or any other grounds specified in section 8.0 of the Yukon College Academic Regulations (available on the Yukon College website). It is the student's responsibility to seek these accommodations. If a student requires an academic accommodation, he/she should contact the Learning Assistance Centre (LAC) at (867) 668-8785 or lassist@yukoncollege.yk.ca.
