Focus Plan

Step 1: Define the task
Write one task you need to complete this week. For example, "clean the house for guests."

Step 2: Break the task into smaller parts

Breaking a large task into smaller parts makes it feel more manageable. "Clean the house" might sound daunting, but "wash dishes" and "do laundry" seem easier to handle.

Step 3: Create a schedule

Schedule the task for a specific time, or link it to a daily activity (e.g. "do the laundry when I get home"). Also, plan how you will remember to work on the task (e.g. "set a phone reminder").

Step 4: Prepare for the task

List how you will get ready to work on the task, before the scheduled time.

Eliminate Distractions	Plan for Unavoidable Distractions
List distractions you can eliminate before starting (e.g. silencing phone, working from a room without a TV).	Create "If, then" plans for likely distractions (e.g. If my friend calls, ).

Materials and Supplies	Physical Preparation
List items you will need to complete the task (e.g. dish soap, sponges, laundry detergent).	List actions you will take to be ready for the task (e.g. dressing appropriately, getting home on time, having a snack).
Step 5: Imagine the outcome
Many people underestimate the positive feelings that come from completing a task. Describe the benefits of completing the task, and how you will feel as a result.
